Uro-Radiological

1. Somani B K, Hacking N, Bryant T, Coyne J, Flowers D, Harris M, Dyer J.
Prostate artery embolization (PAE) for benign prostatic enlargement (BPE).

2. Drake T, Jain N, Bryant T, Wilson I, Somani B K.
Should low-dose CTKUB (LDCT) be the new investigation of choice in suspected renal colic? A systematic review.

3. Coyne J, Flowers D, Dyer J, Somani B K, Harris M, Bryant T, Hacking N.
Prostate artery embolization for benign prostate enlargement: Prospective short-term outcomes from a university teaching hospital.
Urology 2014; 84: 4(S1) S224, UP.176.

Fate of indeterminate lesions detected on Non-Contrast Computed Tomography scan for suspected urolithiasis-A Retrospective Cohort Study.
Urology 2014 Sep 17. pii: S0090-4295(14)00702-X.

5. Leach S, Somani B K, Bryant T.
Investigation creep and findings of CTKUB versus IVU for renal colic: Comparison of 2 time periods between inpatient and emergency department.

6. Anwar S, Somani B K.
We have found something: The new burden of CTKUB.

7. Anwar S, Somani B K.
Missed diagnosis on intravenous urography (IVU): Our rationale of switching from IVU to non-contrast CT (NCCT) for suspected renal colic.

8. Stone detection for renal colic: Comparative results between IVU and NCCT.
Anwar S, Bryant T, Wilson I, Somani B K.

Image guided biopsy diagnosed renal cell carcinoma: Critical appraisal of technique and long-term follow up.

10. Rai B, McClinton S, Cohen N, Somani B K.
Fate of indeterminate/suspicious lesions found incidentally on CTKUB for suspected renal colic- Outcomes after a minimum follow-up of 15 months.

22. Somani B K, Gupta H, Bramwell S, Todd A.
Hyperkalemia does not need correction prior to percutaneous nephrostomy (PCN) in obstructed hydronephrosis (OHN).
Journal of Endourology, 2009; MP 16-03.

Emergency nephrostomy: changing trends for Urological and Non-Urological cancers.

Does pre-surgical image guided biopsy for indeterminate masses reduce the incidence of benign pathology following radical nephrectomy? A single centre audit.
European Urology 2007(March); 6(2): 553.

25. Kumaravel M, Somani B K, Nedumaran P A, Hussey J, Thorpe P. Nephrostomies: when & why did we give up?

Post-Embolization Syndrome (PES) following renal angioembolisation: Does underlying disease matter?
European Urology 2005(March); 4(3): 189.

27. Somani B K, Chakravarti A, Jones M A, Kadow K
Accuracy of CT scan in staging Renal cell carcinoma.

28. Somani B K, Nabi G, McClinton S.
Nephrostomy in the Un-dilated kidney – when, why we do it?