						Offered chance to stay in cottage in Cornwall owned by longstanding patient of 15 years who I know very well. Have previously declined the offer, but when made very genuinely this year! was tempted to accept given that we had not been on a family holiday for a long time. Not sure whether to accept. Spoke to BMA/ MPS/ Corporate affairs in Trust (Karen Flaherty). It was agreed acceptable to accept as no conflict of interest but as a gesture! I should make a significant contribution to charity which! did to HF Team fund. Lots of documentation with patient/ partner about how! wasn't comfortable and needed to know it was acceptable to accept. They were runderstanding and keen that they went. The cottage is not a holiday let. They let friends and family use it on the basis of covering bills at £100 per week. We provided laundry and towels and cleaned the cottage (and did gardening). I got them to agree to take £300 as it had been empty for many months with COVID. They had offered it to local MHS in lockdown but no one took them up on the offer. We had a lovely time. I have paid

Dymond-Bassett, Dr Maret Melanie (Maret)	Applied Psychologist - Clinical	Υ	Financial interests	Clinical private practice	I am a Clinical Psychologist at UHS and Co-Lead the Staff Psychology Service for Division C. I have a clinical private practice - New Forest Mindfulness - through which I offer mindfulness and other psychological workshops, courses, training, consultation and supervision to individuals, groups and organisations. I am the Director and sole shareholder for New Forest Mindfulness. I also collaborate with Dr Anna Hames and Dr Angela Griffin of UHS to offer private psychological coaching, leadership training and work related trauma treatment under the collective umbrella "Connective Potential". Connective Potential is marketed on the New Forest Mindfulness L1d website. Any payment I receive for my work with Collective Potential will be processed via New Forest Mindfulness L1d or Angela Griffin and Dr Anna Hames are sole traders. My private practice work is carried out during my non-UHS employed hours (currently on Mondays, evenings and weekends) on line from my home office or in person at private hired venues. All materials used are generated in private practice time. In April 2021-March 2021 toffered 8 mindfulness / self-compassion workshops and 4 courses to UHS through this organisation. I am now offering 4 workshops and 4 courses for June 2022-March 2023 through extra hours to UHS contract instead of my private practice. I am also offered 5 mindfulness / self-compassion workshops and 4 courses to UHD NHS Foundation Trust from April 2022-March 2023 through my private practice.		01/01/2024 31/12/2024

I also collaborate with Dr Maret Dymond-Bassett and Dr Angela Griffin of UHS to offer private psychological coaching, leadership training and work related trauma treatment under the collective umbrella "Connective Potential". We have launched a website area on Maret's pre-existing business website, but have not yet started taking any business or receiving payments. I am a sole trader for both of the above. My private practice work is carried out during my non-UHS employed hours, on line from my home office, using my private computer and materials. Lead materials used are generated in private practice time. My company DXRT has been liquidated. I still see private patients now only at Spire Southampton. Over the last year I have received a bottle of whisky, a bottle of wine some chocolates and biscuits and a hand turned wooden clock. I have a private practice at the Spire and Nuffield Hospital. This invoices under Mr Nicholas Hancock or the company name "Tonic Medicolegal Services Itd" since 2011. My private practice time is job planned on Monday and alternate Thursdays. TONIC MEDICOLEGAL SERVICES LTD is a Private limited company (ttd.) company based in 7 LYNWOOD COURT PRIESTLANDS PLACE, United Kingdom, which employs 2 people.  | No additional fees will be incorporated. Attendance would otherwise be from the study leave budget So that any potential conflicts of interest can be safely navigated I have taken the following actions: I have made my line manager fully aware of all of the above. On our behalves for connected potential, Maret has also informed the Divisional Director of Operations for Division C, the Head of Nursing and Professions for Division C, the Wellbeing Services Lead for UHS and the Team at UHD. Maret and I have consulted about our planned private practice work with Nichola Cookson, Commercial Contracts Manager at UHS, who recommended we meet with Caroline Walsh, Service Manager for Private Patients and Overseas Services for UHS. This meeting took place on 08.08.2023 online via Teams. Caroline advised that what we intend to offer through Connected Potential was acceptable, that we should apply for PPP, which is in process and that we should also seek our own legal guidance and speak with the legal team at UHS. We have requested a meeting with a legal representative at UHS and we have requested PPP registration. All materials used are generated in private practice

MacKinnon, Reverend Karen Audrey	Manager	Y	Financial interests	Outside employment	I have a private counselling practice - Kaleidoscope- & agreed to do a one-off teaching session for Wessex Cancer Care Alliance for a fee of £50. At the time, I thought that this was a private agreement between WCA & my sole trader business. Just before the session, I discovered that WCA had a contract with UHS & that the session would be delivered in UHS not the University. I completed the forms WCA sent me and invoiced them from Kaleidoscope. I now understand from an email from Adam Pitt that as I am employed here, this will need to be paid via my salary. This is not likely to recur as I keep my private practice very separate from UHS.		30/04/2024
