Training

We're here to help you get the information you need. Whether you have a quick query or a more complex enquiry, we're happy to tackle it on your behalf.

We can also help you improve your own information skills. We offer 1-2-1 and group training on topics from making the most of your library, to getting to grips with databases.

We're happy to tailor courses to your needs. Please ask for more details.

You might find our VLE Library courses helpful. Search "library" on VLE.

Feedback

Whether you have a complaint, compliment or suggestion, we'd like to hear it. Pick up a form from the library or email us on:

hsl@uhs.nhs.uk

Using the Library

We know from feedback that you want to study in a clean and quiet environment:

- Switch your mobile to silent mode.
- Take/make calls outside the library. Group study rooms are available for conversations with colleagues.
- Covered drinks and cold food may be consumed when sitting at a desk in the library.
- You are responsible for all items issued on your library card. You will either be charged or asked to replace any lost or damaged items. Although we do not charge fines, your library card will be blocked for a period of time if you fail to return / renew your books on time.
- When the library is closed, books may be returned to the 'Book Return Box' next to the entrance doors.
- If the fire alarm rings continuously, please leave the library. An intermittent alarm means there is a fire alert in an adjacent area.
